

Grange Park Primary forms hub with local schools

We continue with the CSSC series of news stories on schools while they operate in varied and exceptional circumstances. This week we hear from Mandy White, Principal, Grange Park Primary School. The school is part of a hub with Clandeboye Primary School and Kilcooley Primary School. Read story here.

Ballymoney Model Integrated Primary School - I can sing a rainbow

In November, Ballymoney Model Integrated Primary School celebrated 'Friendship Week' in their school and linked this to the symbol of a rainbow. With the help of Mrs Simmons and the school's fabulous sign language club, the children loved learning how to sing and sign "I can sing a rainbow" together as a school. Watch here.
