

Dundela Infants' School and Nursery Unit's wellbeing week

To coincide with Mental Health Awareness Week, the school focused on their emotional health and wellbeing. The teachers provided parents with a range of fun, mindful and reflective daily activities with suggestions on family wellbeing. Read more here. Read more here.

Drumgor Primary School challenges

The children of Drumgor Primary School in Craigavon have truly embraced home learning. Google Classroom proves to be a valuable teaching aid for the KS1 and KS2 teachers, and the whole school join together for weekly themed challenges. Catch up with challenges.

Online resources

Online English/literacy resources from early years to key stage 5 to support children's education at home. These resources are currently being offered for free. Find out more here.

Supporting Learning

CSSC continues to work with partners in education including EA, CCEA, ETI, CCMS and Comhairle na Gaelscolaíochta to bring together a range of high quality support and guidance for teachers, parents and learners. Access here.

Call out for video content

Thank you to all those schools who have recently shared their positive stories. They are a reflection of how even during this unprecedented time, school ethos is living and breathing. We would now like to collate footage of principals talking about their work in schools and how their school ethos and values have helped overcome challenges. If you are willing to help with this please contact colleen.murray@cssni.org.uk

NI Assembly Committee for Education updates

We are compiling a weekly email for controlled schools' Principals and Governors, highlighting the key areas of discussion at the NI Assembly Committee for Education. If you would like to receive the email each week please email us at info@csscni.org.uk

Find your school support officer

You can find your CSSC school support officer through our interactive map. Please get in touch if you have anything you wish to discuss, or we can support in any way.
